INTRODUCING Mr. Walter Welch, of Middlebury, Indiana.

While Mr. Welch has been a member of the A.I.S. only six years, he has been doing some fine hybridizing for several years, using a good deal of discrimination in selecting his crosses. He is also interested in crossing dwarfs. Last year I visited his garden and prevailed upon him to introduce three varieties, which I considered outstanding. They are as follows:

HALLELUJAH: (Welch-46) (Gudrun x Easter Morn) 42" tall, pure white, first branch 19" from base of stalk, shape of flower is fine, petals  $5 \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ ", six blooms open at a time, each one lasting one week, extra substance, plant being in bloom 27 days. I saw a bloom a week old, after three rains and it looked astoundingly perky. Pale yellow beard, tipped white, 15.00

WHITE PARVENU: (Welch-46) (Gudrun x Easter Morn) very large attractive white, 8" across, stalk 47", first branch 20" from base, extra substance. S: domed. F: semi-horizontal, bright orange beard 10.00

HAUGHTY: (Welch-46) (Calif. Gold x Easter Morn) Fine large cream self. Stalk 43" tall, first branch 18" from base, spreading, extra heavy substance, five blooms open at a time. S: domed. F: nearly horizontal. Weather resistant. 10.00

DUKE OF WELLINGTON: Another comparatively new member of A.I.S. is Mrs. Phyllis Payne of 512 E. Madison St., Goshen, Ind. Mrs. Payne is just starting to do some hybridizing and she placed in my garden a nice origination, not too outstanding, but visitors seem to take to it. Mrs. Payne compares this new iris to Frieda Mohr, but it is darker and much brighter; a more intense color. Mrs. Payne asked me to introduce this at a low price. 2.00
